- I, Chris Alger, leave everybody in sports the ability to run hills in soccer.*
- I, Julie Arquette, leave as the last and the Best of the Arquettes.*
- I, Sandy Barney, leave to all high school teachers, the patience to get through two more Barneys; Believe me, they'll need it.*
- I, Kris Beha, leave Mithc Wilson to anyone that can put up with him.*
- I, Dan Clark, leave next years soccer team stars the ability to get along with coach Harper as well as I do.*
- I, Heidi Condon, leave my ability to ignor Slicks detention threats to Patty Wood and Jamie Jacot.*
- I, Bob Cox, leave all my love to Karen. Also wish the class of "80" all the luck that may come their way.*
- I, Todd Daby, leave all the happiness that I ever found to those people that are unhappy in life. Always be happy because this is the key to life, being unhappy will only bring you down.*
- I, Daryl Exware, leave all my love to Patty Norman and to Dancing Duby a Free ticket to Dance Fever.*
- I, Mary Ferguson, leave to Pam Parker the ability to keep quiet in studyhalls and to Woody the hope that she will remember all our good times and the hope that we can become close enough once again to have many many more.*
- I, Matt Fullerton, leave Mr. Seybert with the insanity to laugh at all his poor jokes.*
- I, David Gallagher, leave coach Harper the ability to catch kids throwing the soccer nets over his charger.*
- I, Jean Garlough, leave all the success in the world to next years seniors, and the best of luck to the great Class of 1980.*
- I, Mike Gary, leave George Tyler my compliments—none! and a case of Canadian LTD.*
- I, Tina Gary, leave Eric Wilcox my ability to go up stairs with out tripping and hurting his ankle.*
- I, Tammy Gibson, leave my ability to stay out of trouble to my sisters and brothers that have to stay here at PHCS and lots of luck to next years seniors.*
- I, Cynthia Harper, leave my abilities to get out of classes to next years Seniors and I give all my love to Joe.*
- I, Kevin Hughes, leave Eric Wilcox the ability to live through a soccer game and everyone else the ability to live through this school . . . Good Luck!*
- I, Jeff Hart, leave Mr. Taylor at 5 lbs. box of chalk dust, for his allergies.*
- I, Ron Hazelton, leave Slick many more honor students like myself, and the ability to control them and to Mrs. Phippen, "Shorty" my ability to do Calculus.*
- I, Tracy Jacot, leave everyone better luck in sports than we had.*
- I, Janet LaBar, wish the class of "80" good luck and happiness, and to the future cheerleaders good luck with the future advisors.*
- I, Marjorie Leavitt, leave P.H.C.S. with the hope that no more girls get in trouble before they graduate.*
- I, Terry Mittelstaedt, leave school to have a better life with Harry Mil;er, Jr.*
- I, Penny Moulton, leave all my boring classes and all the boring days to my sister Linda.*
- I, Robin Nelson, leave Mr. Sabino my office, providing it' well taken care of and not abused.*

- I, Cindy Peck, leave Tammy Premo my ability to get along with Cheryl Phippen.*
- I, Donna Peets, leave the following - to Diane Wilson the art of finding a good man and loving him, and to Mr. Smith all the nuts and other persons who may take Outdoor Ed.*
- I, Rob Phippen, leave Mrs. Warden a list of parents phoney phone numbers for Senior Skip Days.*
- I, Steve Phippen, leave next years Cit Ed 11 class a years supply of "No Doz Pills"*
- I, Greg Planty, leave Kevin Wilcox my soccer uniform and Evan Harper enough sense to bring some money on the bus trips to pay off his card-playing debts.*
- I, Brent Remington, leave to Brian Hayes the ability to skip BOCES without getting caught. I wish my mother luck in the rest of her 200 years here. And lots of love to Dawn Gary.*
- I, Paul Robar, leave my sister all the luck in her last year at P.H.C.S. and George Tyler a pair of suspender to hold up his pants.*
- I, Janet Russell, leave my brother Paul all the luck in Jr. High.*
- I, Brenda Sampier, leave the ability to smoke in the bathroom without getting caught to Tammy Premo.*
- I, Terry Shelly, leave Mrs. Phippen a portable step ladder—"Slick" a class-full of Ron Hazeltons—Cristal better luck with tripping people—and to whoever needs it, my ability to talk my way out of trouble.*
- I, Jodi Smith, leave hopes for the Girls Basketball team to find a coach who will coach them for more than one year!*
- I, vonne Sochia, leave Parishville Jail to the unfortunate convicts who can't be as lucky now as the class of 1980 to get out on parole.*
- I, Bruce Thompson, leave Brian Hayes the ability to go through with BOCES another year.*
- I, Roxy Viau, leave the ability to skip lessons to anyone who can out wit Mr. Sabino.*
- I, Dawn Wilson, leave all my unfinished sewing projects to anyone who can finish them.*
